

Sport Alberta elects New Board

Calgary, AB – Sport Alberta an independent voice for Sport in Alberta elected a new board on Monday, February 4th.

Returning to the board are Dale Henwood, Jim Skillings and Scott F. Hayes. Dale will continue as the Board Chair and is the President of the Canadian Sport Centre Calgary. Jim is a retired physical education teacher and Scott is Executive Director of the Alberta Gymnastics Federation. New Board members include Dave Myers former Executive Director of Ringette Alberta and Marketing Coordinator for the Edmonton Oilers and Jennifer Luzia, Executive Director for Synchro Alberta. Those continuing their mandates as board members include David Legg, Katie Spriggs, and Al Ferchuk. Dr. Legg is an instructor at Mount Royal College in the Department of Physical Education and Recreation Studies, Katie is Associate Director of Athletics at the University of Alberta and Al is former Athletic Director at Red Deer College.

Those not seeking re-election and stepping down include Susan Bulmer, Executive Director of Skate Canada: Alberta - NWT /Nunavut and Scott Robinson, Executive Director of the Hockey Alberta Foundation. Sport Alberta is grateful for their contributions.

The Sport Alberta board now will turn its attention to the Alberta Provincial election ensuring that sport is top of mind with candidates.

Sport Alberta (Amateur) was established in 1972 by and for the sport community ("a voice for the sport community, by the sport community"). Sport Alberta was reinvigorated in 2004 after a lengthy period of dormancy. At that time the objects of Sport Alberta were identified as the following:

- To promote amateur sport in the Province of Alberta.
- To set a forum for the exchange of members' views.
- To act as a liaison with government agencies and to bring before the Provincial Government such recommendations as are approved by the Society.
- To correlate the efforts of all amateur sport governing bodies in Alberta in stimulating interest in amateur sport.

For more information please contact Dale Henwood at 403.220.8196; dale@canadiansportcentre.com or visit: <http://www.sportalberta.ca/>